

Food Industry

Challenges –

- The challenge for rise of food industry are production, procurement of quality raw materials, use of inefficient traditional (obsolete) technologies, huge operational cost, poor economies of scale
- Inadequate knowledge about GMP (Good Manufacturing Practices)
- Changing customer taste
- Rise in Competition due to FDI
- Rising business and product innovation
- Less Shelf life of produce and finished product

Regulations –

1. HACCP, ISO, FPO, Sanitation, 3A
2. ISO 8086:2004 - Hygiene conditions
3. Food and Drugs Act (FDA)
4. Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI)
 - FSS (Packaging and Labelling) Regulations, 2011
 - FSS (Food Products Standards and Food Additives) Regulations, 2011
 - FSS (Prohibition and Restrictions on Sales) Regulations, 2011
 - FSS (Contaminants, Toxins and Residues) Regulations, 2011
 - FSS (Laboratory and Sample Analysis) Regulations, 2011
5. Export (Quality Control and Inspection) Amendment Act

GRC Stack eSuite IRM

GRC STACK offers a wide range of solutions to aid governance management, risk mitigation, audits, information security and regulatory compliance.

How does it help:

- Effective way to Monitor and Control the processes that help achieve Business Goals.
- Notifications and Alerts to track activities performed to maintain proper functioning of processes.
- Provide visibility across hierarchy and plan for business improvements.
- Timely maintenance of machines and equipment to avoid heavy expenses.

Benefits:

- Steer Performance
- Improve Quality and Products & Services
- Prevent Damage
- Be in Control
- Audit Ready

Thank you

visit www.grcstack.com